

The Vision of Southwest Regional Maintenance Center

The Navy depends on us.

We are a talented and empowered force that delivers 100% on time, cost effective, and innovative solutions.

We ensure our nation has ships that are safe and ready to sail into harm's way to support the Navy's mission.

We achieve this by championing Navy core values, improving our skills, partnering with industry, and striving for perfection while achieving excellence.

